Master Andrew Davis, a son of Mr. W. E. Davis of Hookemfare, is now a full-fledged apprentice at the office of the MATHEWS JOURNAL. We have known Andrew for some time, and have every confidence in his ability and integrity, and we are going to see if we cannot make a useful newspaper man out of him.

Mr. G. S. Marchant has just received his second stock of millinery. He says his business is of such an up-to-date nature in this line that he has a resident buyer in Baltimore sending the newest things every week and often the styles he will show you are selected from a forecast of fashions rather than from stocks. This will be his first showing of summer styles and he will have his second opening and special sale beginning April 23rd and lasting 10 days.

There is no use sending your orders away for clothing when you can get the best quality, best fit and perfect satisfaction right here at home by giving your orders to R. If you are in need of a new suit or want your old suit to look new, drop in to see him and give him a trial. He will convince you over the Bank.

HYSELOP—MORGAN.

A quiet but beautiful marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Morgan near Diggs Post Office, on Tuesday morning, April 28, the Rev. Richard Ferguson officiating. The groom was Mr. Lloyd K. Hyselop of Portsmouth, Va., and the bride, Miss Florence Morgan, the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Morgan. The bride was gown in a handsome lace robe over taffeta, with pearl trimmings. The groom wore the conventional black. After a wedding breakfast the bride changed her costume to a neat travelling dress of black silk and the happy pair took their departure for Fitchetts, where they met the steamer Tivoli, due for Baltimore, and from thence to other Northern cities. On Sunday, May 2, they arrived in Portsmouth, their new home, which they found neatly and tastefully furnished, and a host of friends awaiting them. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents here and in Portsmouth, and the young couple have the best wishes of their many friends in their new sphere.

Gliding down the stream of life,
You and I,
Loving husband, faithful wife,
You and I,
Happy and contented rest,
With the one we each love best,
We'll build a little loving nest,
You and I.

Good For Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert, Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50c. at all druggists.

SUSAN.

The third quarterly conference of the East Mathews Circuit met on last Monday.

The Presiding Elder, Rev. T. R. Gayle, preached on Sunday night, his text being the words, "What wilt thou have me to do."

The substance of his discourse was a declaration of the fact that while we are not saved by our good works, we cannot be saved without them, and where one is lost for doing wrong scores perhaps are lost for failing to do right.

On Monday his subject was "The Christian's Hope," which he defined as a strong desire mixed with a well-founded expectation.

Both discourses were handled in a way which proved him to be master of his subject and a preacher of more than ordinary ability.

After the morning service dinner was served under the trees, and when that was over the business of the conference was attended to.

The Rev. Richard Ferguson and wife were present, he offering the opening prayer, in which no part of our church was not remembered at the throne of grace.

THIEF CAUGHT.

A colored man, known by the name of Beauchamp, whom it is said came from Jamaica, and has been living in this county for some time, was captured by Detective West and others in what is called the Black Belt in Norfolk, Va., and on being searched and cross-examined by a number of the police force, after making many contradictory statements, finally owned up as having taken the money that disappeared from the cash drawer of Owens & Armistead two weeks ago. It seems that some boatmen from this county saw Beauchamp in Norfolk spending money in an extravagant manner and reported the same to Mr. Charles Owens, principal of the firm, who on going down to Norfolk saw him on the street and put the detectives on his track.

The amount recovered to date is: Amount found on his person, in cash, $34.25; suit of clothes for which he had paid, but were still at the tailor's, $25; a ring, cost of which was $5; a fountain pen, $2; found in his home, $1.50; buried near his home, $119, making a total of $186.25.

He is now in the county jail awaiting trial.

Lenas.

The Lucky Quarter.

Is the one you pay out for a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They bring you the health that's more precious than jewels. Try them for headache, biliousness, constipation and malaria. If they disappoint you the price will be cheerfully refunded at all druggists.

HUBERS—FORREST.

Miss Della A. Forrest, the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. H. M. Forrest of Mathews Co., Va., and Mr. Albert W. Hubers, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hubers, of Baltimore, Md., were quietly married Jan. 15, 1908, by the Rev. Dr. Henry Branch at the manse of the Presbyterian church. The bride was attended by Miss Frances Lieberman as maid of honor. Mr. Edward F. Lee was best man. After the marriage the happy couple took the car to their home, 625 West Saratoga street.

FITCHETTS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fitchett arrived Tuesday from Baltimore and other places of interest, reporting a very pleasant trip.

Misses Alice Healy and Olivia Fleet and Messrs. Edgar Winn, Dudley Fox and William H. Thatcher were the pleasant guests of Miss Gertrude James on Sunday afternoon.

We are glad to say that Mrs. Dan Hunley is improving.

We extend our deepest sympathy to one of the elder members of the Line Kiln Club, who was seen on the road near Diggs Sunday evening last looking so lonesome. We are all trying to guess the cause of the trouble.

We are sorry to hear that we are to lose the pleasant company of Mr. Thomas James, who will leave Thursday for Providence, R. I., where he will spend the summer. We wish him a pleasant trip.

The Faint-Hearted Kid is gaining in popularity as all of his mail is addressed to the "Faint-Hearted-One of Fitchetts." But the trouble is there is more than one faint-hearted kid at Fitchetts.

The shad fishing is about over and the fishermen are preparing for the hook and line fish, which we hope will be more profitable than the shad, as this has been a very poor season.

Capt. Lee Dixon has disposed of a large quantity of seed oysters.

Capt. Charles Hopkins left Monday for Crisfield, Md., to engage in fishing for the rest of the summer. We wish him luck.

Remember me from all the rest,
Remember who loves you the best,
And when the grave becomes my bed,
Remember me when I am dead.

Buffalo Bill.

Among the travelling men who passed through Bohannon recently are Messrs. Haydon, Riley, Harris, Thomas, Zumstein, Hart, Butler, White, Pearlstein and Cornick.
